Can 18 students plus one teacher fit into a piece of 8.5 in. x 11 in. paper? Sure the can! Mrs. Bartelson's 3rd period Honors Geometry class used topology, the study of stretching a figure into a different shape, and creatively cut the paper into a 26 foot continuous circle. Then, they stepped inside it! Also on this page: geometry classes apply their knowledge of shapes to pumpkin carving and creating Archimedian spirals with dominoes; Mrs. Kupcinskas and her Freshman Math class; and, here and there: segments of the Geometry classes' quilt pieces. The plan is for F & C Science students to transform some of the squares into fabric art!

Junior Class Play

Production Week . . .

After ten weeks, the characters have been cast, the scenes blocked, lines learned, costumes acquired, the Program ads sold and copy organized, tickets printed and being sold, scenery designed, sound & lightning ready . . . so begins Production Week! All the preparation and now REALITY. Costumes are worn, the footlights are ON and everyone becomes aware that THIS IS the week. It is Sunday — and ALL afternoon and evening — there is rehearsal. Oh, there is time for some lighthearted "time out" and photo opportunities for the Yearbook: the "Cast" picture and some candids that the audiences will never get to see! Some of the actual show pictures can be seen in the Junior Class section of this Yearbook. The 2000 Yearbook will present the color JCP pictures in the "Senior Class of 2000" section!

Freshmen

This and That

The 1997 Colonial Yearbook focused in a specialty section called "This & That" on favorite names at SHS! With the Class of 2002, it is time for an update! The Class of 1999, at that time, boasted of 12 "Jennifers" & 6 "Jessicas"; 11 "Matthews" & 8 "Michaels".
The Class of 2000 continued to find "Jessica" the favorite with 8, followed by four each: "Christinas", "Jessicas", "Kristins", "Lindsays", "Lisas" & "Nicoles", the Gentlemen shared four each: "Jasons", "Josephs", "Michaels" & "Roberts." The "Jennifers" "disappear" from the top spot by 2001! Six "Jessicas" lead, followed closely by 5 "Nicoles". "Michaels" are back in the lead with 8, and with six each: "Andrews", "Brians" & "Justins" tie for second place.

We know where the "Michaels" are, But where have all the "Jennifers" gone?

Only a single Jennifer (Roldan)! But, "Jessicas" have taken the lead with 8: Bates, Beauregard, Curry, Peltier, Reid-Knox, Singh, Viau, Yam. There are six "Michelles": Gonyea, Montville, Pessolano, Stanton and Zielinski. Third place is captured by the "Sarahs": Bielack, Kyser, Lackovic, Lemay and Mowatt. Seventeen percent of the Class of 2002 share these six names!

The "Michaels" continue to dominate with 9! They are: Issac, Mahoney, Maloney, Martin, McKay, O'Brien, Robinson, Sigismondo, Whitaker. A very close second finds the "Matthews" with 8: Amdur, Chase, Corron, Eliadi, Froio, Johnson, O'Riordan, Parello (most of whom are "camera shy"!) "Ryans" have made their way into contention: Bennett, Bigda, LeBlanc, Mauro, Powers.

World AIDS Day Candlelight March, December 1st, Worcester

"The Real World"
You can find The Real World when you turn on TV, a world of commercials that they want you to see,
but some people know, the ones who can see, that The Real World comes on when you turn off TV,
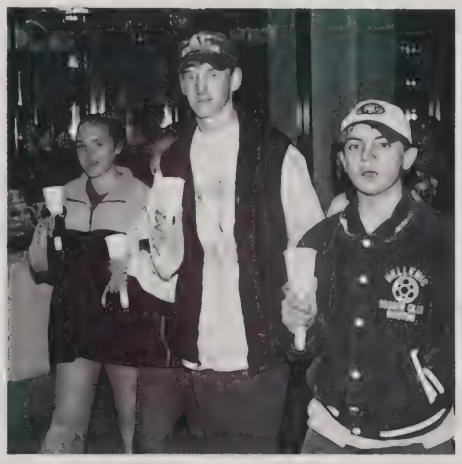
a world that has AIDS, a world HIV,
a world positive or negative where we don't all agree,
a world filled with risks that still wants to be free,
a world that we know, a world we can see,
a world that needs help to be all it can be,
a world that needs you, a world that needs me.



Advisors Mr. Marchand and Mr. Nugent accompanied the Dream Team to the March and Service marking World AIDS Day 1998. The Dream Team group about Congressmen McGovern on the City Hall steps. "The Real World" (see above) was written for Sean Sasser's visit by SHS's Mr. Hodgen.

Exhilaration

Do It for the . . .

"Do it for the . . . ." the team's words of inspiration this season.

They did it for the banner: the League Champions banner which would hang in the gym forever as the first ever banner won by the field hockey team in the history of SHS.

They did it for their love of the game. During the David Prouty district game, Prouty scored two goals in the first half against senior goalie Lauren Calimeris. Prouty kept the pressure up, but Calimeris had made up her mind not to let any more in. Shrewsbury tied it up later in the first half and again in the second with goals by Juniors Jill Morris and Kelly Romanowicz. Prouty was unable to score, due to some mad skills by Calimeris, and the game went into overtime. There were no goals scored in the first two overtimes, and Shrewsbury kept the pressure on with help from key defensive players, Gina Manzoli and Maria DiPilato, who together would not let anything past. Unfortunately, with 5:13 left in the third overtime, Prouty scored. "That's not right," but they felt that they had played their hardest, even without key senior players Jacqui Phillips and Capt. Shannon Hawley.

Other key players for the season were Senior forwards Jacqui Phillips and Jen Grala, top scorers for the team, and junior and senior mid-fielders Diane Bourget and Capt. Courtney Alger.

They did it for the nine, and DD.

Kick and Run

The 1998 Girls Varsity Soccer team finished their season with a strong record of 13-3-2. In their league they were undefeated with a record of 7-0-1, winning the title of League Champions. Led by captains Sue Ganas, Kate Grenier, and Mo O'Connor, the team qualified for District play. They defeated Doherty in the first round followed by a win over North Middlesex, in the second. This earned them a place in the District Championship match against defending champion Nashoba. The score remained tied at two-two at the end of the match and through the following double overtime. In the shoot-out that followed, the team did not turn out victorious, but proved their determination and tenacity through their spirited display of heart and perseverance.

In addition to the three captains, the team was blessed with seven more seniors, including Leslie Urbec, Julie Garvey, Ashley Andre, and Heather Shandley forming the core od the defense. Erin Largess, Lindsay Correia, and Danielle Mauro held the team together on the offensive end. Goal keeper Sue Ganas, ranking number one in the league for the lowest goals against average, proved to be an asset to the team. Contributing to the team's success was junior and center middle fielder, Magda Tomecka, who received the honor of being named a High School All-American in the sport of soccer.

This is the team's second consecutive year as District Finalists. They have a bright future and the strong will to succeed.

Boys' Soccer: Inverted

This year's season got off to a decent start when the boys tied Westboro and defeated Nashoba. In his first year, Coach Bill Martin set a high standard of reaching districts for the boys. Even though the team had never given up, they were just short of clinching districts by 3 games. Seniors Greg Bennett, Matt Sroka, Eric Rogers, Kevin Hunt, Jeff Rogers, Charlie Mak, Eric Johnson, Erik Lahti, Francesco Froio, Matt Johnson, and Jon Kujala left on a high note winning three of their last four games, despite the knockout. Greg Bennett, Matt Sroka, and Zach Sroka were key factors in the Colonials' success. Good luck to the seniors and to Coach Martin and next year's returning team. The record for this year was 5-8-5.

The 1998 football cheerleaders, led by coach Lynda Shamlian and Captain Marlena Cosenza, are all about hard work and dedication. In August the girls also enjoyed four days at the Universal Cheerleaders Association Summer Camp at Emmanuel College in Boston. At the camp, the team learned several cheers, dances, and new stunts. The squad used what they learned at camp for their performances at the football games and at Field Day.

Daily after school practices helped to develop skill and condition the team. The cheerleaders dazzled many a crowd with their amazing stunts, incredible tumbling, and intricate dances. Also, the football season is a time when the girls do service for the community. This season the team participated in the Great American Smokeout with a performance at the Solomon Pond Mall that gave the "Don't Smoke" message. Also, some of the girls volunteered as Pop-Warner cheerleading coaches.

At this point the cheerleader season is barely half over with basketball and competition season still to come. Hopefully all of their hard work will pay off!

Giving It All

The 1998 Colonial Football Team, led by Captains Mike Mastro and Chris David, saw a new generation of football for SHS. With the loss of seventeen seniors and a new coaching staff, the team began almost entirely fresh. New head coach, Terry Walles had his work cut out for him. The dedication and work ethic was evident throughout the season as the team could be seen on the practice field late in the afternoon. The tough practices paid off with wins over South High, in their first game, and over Burncoat, both at Foley Stadium. With the help of key players Mario Johnson, Nick Rotolo, Greg Ward, Jon Bacotti, Lee Diamantopoulos, Jamie Buonomo, and Ryan Majewski, the team played the season with a lot of heart and gave it everything they had culminating in a great 20-3 win over traditional Turkey Day Rival Milford. The freshmen team ended with a winning season, so it's likely that the next few years will develop into another winning tradition.

And They're Off . . .

Coach Goewey and Captains Saba & D'Elia

The girls' cross-country team has pulled through with another stellar season. They finished off the regular season at a 7-2 record with tough losses to rivals North Middlesex and Wachusett, and then went on to place third at the League Meet where runner Lori D'Elia placed seventh to become a League All-Star. One week later, the girls ran the District-Class A meet and placed fourth to finish off the season.

Captains for this year were seniors Lori D'Elia and Jen Saba. They, along with three other seniors including Varsity runners Beth Koziara and Erin Barrell, will sorely be missed. This year's team was largely made up of underclassmen, with freshmen Kristin Koziara and Molly Hurter running among the top seven at Districts and placing well. These girls, among others, will be the ones to watch next season when the team looks once again to regain the title of "League Champions."

Seniors: Karyn Bailey, Erin Barrell, Capt. Lori D'Elia, Beth Koziara, Jen Saba; Juniors: Maggie Hagerman, Michelle Sabourin, Kerrie Ward; Sophomores: Jenny Grillo, Irene Hosey, Gina Valentine, Maria Vicens; Marcella Corcoran, Molly Hurter, Kristin Koziara.

A Winning Team Beats with One Heart, So Does Ours

Coach with Captains Matt Davis and Jared Starr

The cross-country team this year was low in numbers, having only 20 runners. As a result, the season ended with a disappointing 5-5 record. The team was guided by the stellar leadership of Captains Jared Starr and Matt Davis. Close behind the captains were a core of underclassmen providing much needed depth. These sophomore sensations, Jay Trikakis, Kevin Wilkes, and Brennan Powers, were the key to the big 5 victories. The future looks promising with these runners bridging the future into the 21st century. They do, however, lose those powerhouse seniors Starr, Davis, Travis Rapé, and Rafael Rivas.

Life's Short . . . Pull Hard

The girls' motto this year was " . . . that which does not kill you makes you stronger . . . " They showed their stamina throughout the season despite cold water, colder air; early practices and meets, late practices and meets; aching muscles and aching muscles! Competition took place in four well known races: the Textile River Regatta, the Connecticut River Regatta, the Head of the Charles and the Foot of the Qunisigamond (reknown rowing course and home sit for SHS). The girls were most proud of their first ever appearance in the Head of the Charles Regatta. The fall team had "old" rowers and a number of "new" ones, who were lead by Captains Megg Byrnes, Jill Wentzell and Jessie Rossi. The girls would like to thank Mr. Krause and Mr. Carr for their coaching efforts this fall and to note their continuing gratitude to the Donohues for their amazing support of the SHS Crew! See the Community Service pages for our raking-leaves-for-Senior-Citizen-efforts!

Hard Strokes for Strong Folks

Crew is truly a team sport. This fall crew season was a rewarding one for both the athletes and the coaches. This was only the third year that SHS has had a fall crew season. Captains Andy Grillo, Kevin Hyzak, and Matt Ryzewski lead the team through their struggles. The boys' team has lots of rapidly progressing and promising young talent. The team would like to thank their wonderful coaches, Mrs. Krause and Mr. Butterfield, for their leadership and support along with their rewarding season.
Congratulations to the team for a well-done fall season.

Thanks, Mrs. Krause

Bump, Set, Spike It!

Shrewsbury's new girls volleyball team "bumped" their sport into the SHS athletics program this fall. Coach Dave Kennedy taught the team the fundamentals and brought them together for a ground breaking season. The team roster included: Seniors: Sarah Ford, Capt. Julia LeBlanc, Soleil Valliere; Juniors: Cristina Curini, Karen Danielson, Gisele Gagne, Ingrid Gustafson, Vi Kim, Jen LeClair, Jill Rosenbaum, Capt. Ice Hockey

After last year's disappointing loss to the eventual state champs, North Middlesex, our team was geared up with something to prove this season. Led by Captains Tom Hogan, Nate Sorensen and Jon Kujala, this team returns with a strong nucleus of fourteen seniors (five of them of the state finalist team in '96). The defending Roy Conference Champs raced out to a promising 7 and 0 record, including the dethroning of defending State Champs North Middlesex (5-2)! Head Coach Phil "The Thrill" Irving, along with Assistant Coaches Scott "Juice" Joslyn and John "Mike Bossy" Binkoski, have readied the team for a legitimate chance to win their first state title.

Team: Seniors Greg Bennett (5), Captain Tom Hogan (16), Kevin Hunt (10), Captain Jon Kujala (6), Mike Michalak (22), Jon Moore (21), Andy O'Connell (19), Jacqueline Phillips (8), Joe Plante (35), Captain Nate Sorensen (1), Matt Sroka (14), Will Turner (15), Joe Violette (2), Ken West (11); Juniors Bob Cardin (7), Carl Lemire (12), Kevin Richardson (4), Zach Sroka (4); Sophomores Nick Dion (13), Craig Gendron (3), Nick Grout (23), Andy Morano (18); Freshman Justin Sorensen (20).

JV Team: Jeff Baril (10), Tim Baumann (1), Todd Cooksey (20), Matt Corron (13), Tim Calder (8), Greg Gicas (16), Michael Isaac (17), Tim Kilroy (5), Nathan Lusignan (24), John Pustis (2), Adam Silva (3), David Stone (4). Coach is Mr. Binkoski.

Hey Cheerleaders!

The Winter Cheerleaders, with Captains Marlena Cosenza and Nicole Trainor leading the way, are all about hard work and support for each other. Faced with the loss of seven seniors from last year's squad, the 1999 winter team had to pull together with eight new varsity members. The veterans were determined not to make 1999 a "rebuilding" year. Through extra practicing and a lot of dedication, the girls have proven themselves a super squad. As the defending 1998 Regional Championship Team, this year's squad will go into spring competition with a new attitude. What last year's team brought to SHS cheering, the 1999 team hopes to continue.

Captains Marlena Cosenza and Nicole Trainor lead the Squad: Seniors Katie Ahern, Jenn Mozer; Juniors Lynne Giguere, Brooke Myers; Sophomores Erika Shankle, Eileen Anderson, Sherry Brunelle, Kristin DiVerdi. Lauren Davis; Freshmen Lauren Demers, Deanna Joubert, Michelle Zielinski.

Boys' Basket Ball

The 1998-1999 Boys' Basket Ball Team is led by Junior John Dahlstrom, and new head coach, Jim Diamantopoulos. The young team, which includes only two seniors, Dave Nirenberg and Eric Rogers, and has two freshmen, Mike Mahoney and Landon LaPorte, came up with great wins against Grafton and Westboro at the beginning of the twenty game season. The great playing of Junior newcomer Chris Sebring, Sophomores Dennis Ferrante and Lee Diamantopoulos, and veteran Junior Jamie Buonomo have also contributed to the young roster. The boys' program also includes strong junior varsity and freshmen teams, so the future certainly looks bright.

Girls' Basketball

Expectations are running high for the 98-99 edition of the SGS Girls Varsity Basketball Team. Having finished the previous season with a stellar 21-2 record and a trip to the District Finals, the Colonials are looking to repeat as Mid Wach "A" Champions and capture the only prize to elude them last season: their first District Championship since 1972. The team is led by Senior captains Erin Largess, Claudia Perez, Sue Ganas, and Senior Ashley Andre. Completing the nine players returning are Juniors Shannon Russell, Allison Ward, Magda Tomecka, and Sophomore Aubrey Andre. Junior Whitney Cooksey is unfortunately lost for the season with an injury. Joining the team are Junior Erin Brownell, Sophomores Liana Popkin and Maria Vincens. With their tremendous work ethic, dedication, and "all for one — one for all" approach to the game, the Colonials are planning to add another chapter to their success story. Mr. Ziobro is Coach.

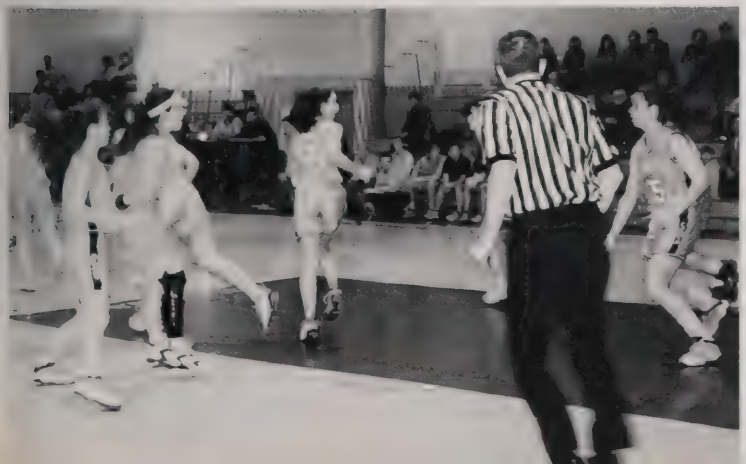
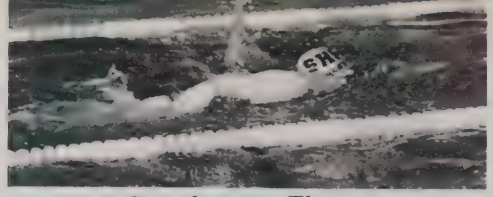
Freshmen Team: Jessica Beauregard, Elise Conley, Danielle Cuénoud, Erin Good, Shawna Grout, Meagan Hogan, Kristin Koziara, Rachael King, Sarah Lemay, Lisa Peraino, Rebecca Rossi, Natalie Speicher. Mr. Marchand is Coach.
Candids were taken at the January 22nd game won against Fitchburg, 72-28, increasing totals to 9-1!



Swimming

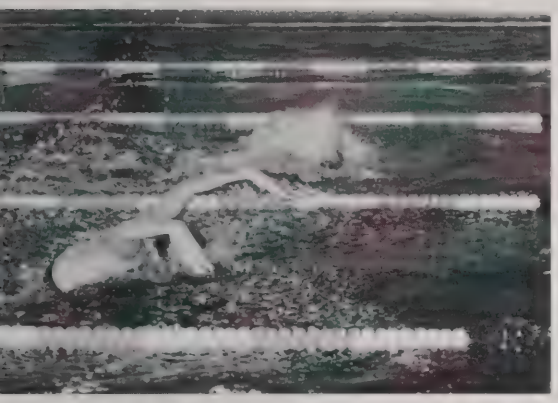


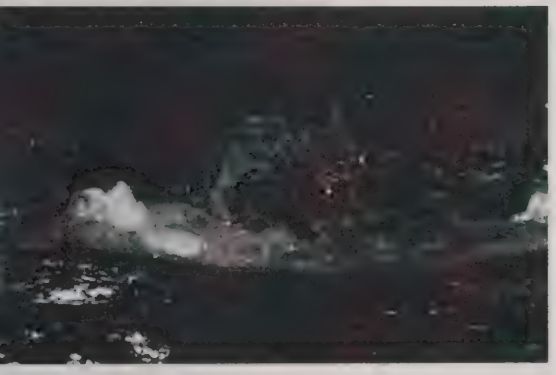
The 98/99 swim season marked the team's fifth year. In 1995, today's Seniors were eighth graders scared to dive and worried about losing goggles. But, they never forgot to stream line! This year the last of the original SHS swimmers, including co-captains Laura Ciociolo and Gina Vigliatura, graduate.

Under the guidance of Coach Karen Lee and her son Jeremy, the team progressed and sent numerous swimmers to sectionals and states. The team defeated most competitors including rivals Fitchburg, Doherty and Bromfield.

The team's success is credited to all swimmers, but especially to Laura Ciociolo, Lisa DelSignore, Irene Hosey, and Greg McWilliams for the 200m-medley relay; to Jen Saba and Irene Hosey for the 100m-butterfly; to Laura Ciociolo and Emily Kinback for the 100m-back stroke; to Lisa DelSignore and Amanda Johnson for the 100m-breast stroke; to Aimee Scanlon and Katie Guarino for the 200/500m-free style; to Katie West for the 200m-IM; and to Gina Vigliatura for the 50m-free style. As the Seniors graduate and move on to swimming at the college level, the SHS swim team is still left with great talent and future successes!

Coached by Ms. Lee, the team includes: Seniors: Karyn Bailey, Capt. Laura Ciociolo, Rachel Dell'Olio, Stephanie Dion, Erin Grady, Charles Mak, Elizabeth Roughan, Jen Saba, Capt. Gina Vigliatura; Juniors: Lisa DelSignore, Shanna Frasaer, Jamie Green, Katie Guarino, Bridget Nowosacki, Jill Rosenbaum, Aimee Scanlon, Katie West; Sophomores: Caitlin Buckley, Stephanie Camerano, Stacie Eressy, Vicky Hendrickson, Irene Hosey, Emily Kinback, Greg McWilliams, Christine Medlar, Kate Welch, Alyson Zillman; Freshmen: Ashley Mallette, Lisa Peraino, Kasia Tomecka, HyeJin Yu.





Boys' Track

SHS packs a punch like no other in the league. Boasting a roster of a little over 20 dedicated athletes, the team is proud to wear their blue and gold. The strong core of underclassmen is led by a trio of captains: shot-putting powerhouse Mike Mastro, distance running demon Matt Davis, and all-event athlete Jared Starr. Others showing incredible skills in the running, jumping and throwing events include Rafael Rivas, Ryan Majewski, Andy Grillo, and Doug Sullivan. The team will be looking even better in years to come with strong juniors and sophomores picking up the slack. Newcomers Bill Younker and Jay Sweet will be spearheading the team next year with Kevin Stone and Le Nguyen. Sophomores Kevin Wilkes and Jay Trikakis also add much to the team.

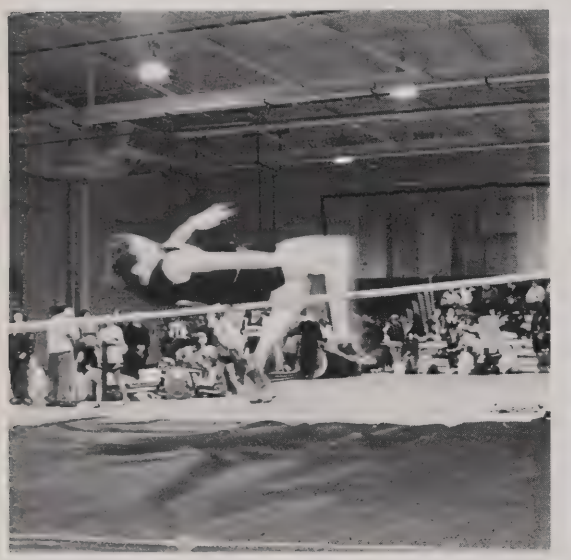
Girls' Track

Girls' Indoor Track started off on a shaky foot! Having only fifteen athletes sign-up, the girls were nervous that there might not be coverage for all events. After intense recruiting, the team numbered 25 athletes, a small but talented group. Leading the team are Captains Erin Barrell and Mo O'Connor, with support from Seniors Kate Grenier, Maria DiPilato, Lori D'Elia and Jess Lloyd. Carrying the distance events are Seniors Barrell, O'Connor, D'Elia, Grenier and Sophomore Jenny Grillo. In hurdles, Ingid Gustafson and Maggie Hagerman continue their three year tradition of excellence, while sprinters Lloyd and Jenny Dehal are showing much promise for the future. Shot-put powerhouses DiPilato, Erica Sundt, Joely LaPorte, Katie O'Brien and Kristin Bates are racking up the points along with high jumpers Lisa Pisano and Meghan Conway. The future of the team looks strong.



The team (and coaches Fenner, Goewey and Munzner) is focusing attention on individual progress and performance, preparing for the spring.

The Team is coached by Mrs. Fenner: Seniors Erin Barrell (Captain), Kate Grenier, Maria DiPilato, Jessica Lloyd, Maureen O'Connor (Captain). Juniors Kristin Bates, Meghan Conway, Ingrid Gustafson, Maggie Hagerman, Joely LaPorte, Katharine O'Brien, Lisa Pisano, Erica Sundt; Sophomores Jessica Aditays, Brittney Antonio, Jaspinder Dehal, Jenny Grillo, Jessica Lynch, Christine Medlar, Lauren Ostrosky, Leah Segrin; Freshmen Elise Conley, Kristin Narolewski.

Gymnastics

What a team! The girls are under the new leadership of Coaches Bill Martin and Michelle McNeil, along with Captains Danielle Mauro and Kristin Valentine. The team has five returning all stars including Lisa Lunt, Jen Miller, Lindsay Troilo, Kristin Valentine, and Allison White. These hard workers, hoping to retain the title of League Champions once again, must overpower their arch rival Algonquin. Training for this feat, they put in many hours of hard work to achieve perfection on every event.

Winter Sports Candids

FOREVER

May the good Lord be with you down every road you roam,
And may sunshine and happiness surround you when you're far from home.
And may you grow to be proud,
dignified and true.
And do unto others
as you would have done to you.
Be courageous and be brave,
And in my heart you will always stay
FOREVER YOUNG.

May good fortune be with you,
may your guiding light be strong.
Build a stairway to heaven.
Be a prince or a vagabond.
And may you never love in vain.
And in my heart you will remain
FOREVER YOUNG.

And when you finally fly away,
I'll hope that I've served you well.
For all the wisdom of a life time,
no one can ever tell,
But whatever road you choose,
I'm right behind you, win or lose.
FOREVER YOUNG.

Dreams

In my head, in my mind
Their meanings are hard to find.

Do they tell the future or the past
By the pictures that they cast?

It's something we all do
Sometimes they come true.

Are they trying to tell us something
By the confusion that they bring?

Are they messages sent down from above
After we've lost someone we love?

Are they a way to see
How we are going to be?

Or are they just a way
To recall yesterday?

Lahti,
A friend is someone you love . . . whose face is in your head. They are the people you cried with during the last song at the prom and at graduation. They are the people who stop you from making mistakes. They stick with you and stand by you. They hold your hand . . . Your life is not the same without them.

After A While
by Veronica A. Shoffstall

After a while you learn
The subtle difference between holding a hand and chaining a soul and you learn that love doesn't always mean leaning
and company doesn't always mean security.
And you begin to learn that kisses aren't contracts and presents aren't promises and you begin to accept your defeats with your head up and your eyes ahead with the grace of a woman not the grief of a child and you learn to build all your roads on today because tomorrow's ground is too uncertain for plans and futures have a way of falling down in mid-flight.
After a while you learn that even sunshine burns
if you get too much so plant your own garden and decorate your own soul instead of waiting for someone to bring you flowers.
And you learn that you really can endure that you really are strong and you really do have worth and you learn and you learn with every goodbye you learn.

Sara —
Thank you for all you have taught us. We love you very much.

Love Always — Gina

Everything had changed suddenly — the tone, the moral climate, you didn't know what to think, whom to listen to. As if all your life you had been led by the hand like a small child and suddenly you were on your own, you had to learn to walk by yourself. There was no one around, neither family nor people whose judgement you respected. At such a time you felt the need of committing yourself to something absolute — life or truth or beauty — of being ruled by it in place of the man-made rules that had been discarded. You needed to surrender to some such ultimate purpose more fully, more unreservedly than you had ever done in the old familiar, peaceful days, in the old life that was now abolished and gone for good.

Thanks for all the advice, the countless rides, all the laughs and tears, the parties, Metallica concerts, and so much more. I will miss hearing you, Dave, and Jeff always jammin in the basement. HAPPY TIME Winning Essays
My Plans for 1989
By Stephanie Cuenoud, Grade 2
Paron School,
Shrewsbury

1989 will be a busy year for me! I have something planned every month. In January, it will be snowy. I will make a snowman. In February, I will be bored with the cold weather so I will go shopping at Old Shrewsbury Village. In March, I will play teacher with my sister Danielle. In April it will rain so I will dance outside in the rain. In May, it will be so beautiful that I will pick flowers. In June, I will play in the new playhouse my father built. In August, I am going to the club pool. In September, it will be my sister's birthday. In October, I will rake leaves. In November, I will have a party. In December, it will be my birthday at last. Then it will be a new year with more exciting things to do.

1999 will be a busy year for me! I have something planned every month. In January, it will be snowy. I will keep you warm when you have a cold. In February, I will be bored with the cold weather so I will look at your baby pictures. In March, I will watch you and your sister in the school play. In April, it will rain so I will dance with you at the mailbox when you open your college acceptance letters. In May, it will be so beautiful that I will take rolls of pictures of you and your friends as you leave for the prom.

In June, I will be proud to watch you graduate. In July, I will go on vacation with you and Danie and Papa. In August, I will go shopping with you for all your school supplies.
In September, I will take you to college. In October, I will visit and talk to you on the phone. In November, I will do your dirty laundry you bring home from school. In December, it will be your birthday again. You've grown into a beautiful young woman! Then it will be a new year with more exciting things to do.

To Sarah Beth,

We've guided you through the years — helping you along the way to be strong, self-assured and independent. We've allowed you to make your own decisions, giving advice, but letting you choose your own path in life.

You've always made us so very proud of your choices. There is no doubt in our minds that your dream of being a writer will come true. Your determination was apparent when you were very small, and that drive will lead you only to great things.

Congratulations and all our love,

Writers —

Mostly, we authors must repeat ourselves — that's the truth. We have two or three great moving experiences in our lives — experiences so great and moving that it doesn't seem at the time that anyone else has been caught up and pounded and dazzled and astonished and humbled in just that way ever before.
